DOUBLE GENOCIDES COUNTLESS KIDS NOT YET EVEN BORN ARE CHOSEN TO GET KILLED UN-REPORTEDLY

MANY BORN DIE UNBURIED IN THE NEWS

They have no names no inheritance nothing to distinguish them in readers' eyes to make their common genetics meaningful. Many die as if they never existed. Vital statistics from official reports for life expectancy and reasons for death omit their numbers and facts. They do not count for that. Not human or not yet human they are termed to deny them their humanity. They are "stuffed animals" and are expunged vacuumed aborted experimented with or neglected to die from hunger or abuse.

After minimal social interruption, for their exorbitant lethality to metastasize to infiltrate opportunistically, genocides promote not only extraordinary fiction but also desirable job opportunities and social mobility. Children genocides do this for society in general and for women in particular who endorse their right to exonerate justify and applaud banal evil politically and socially.

In the battles for equality between women and men, children are legally dispossessed, even suspect. Their intrinsic worth is deemed less or nil. Childhood exists outside equations concerned with gender and human rights.

Today either women or men not wanting children can choose to control conception through pills common plastics and rubbers or surgeries. But once another is introduced in her womb, women alone ultimately choose to let the other be born or be aborted.

Different from past genocides when ethnic or governmental structures regarded others as expendable, these genocides are a democratic social practice enabling citizens to eradicate and marginalize the young. Children are not ethnic adults and do not even matter enough to bear political extermination by edict.

Medical professionals as well as political and legal institutions command leading roles in modern child genocides. The media reports reinforce common public perceptions about being well-informed, progressive, peaceful citizens who have nothing to do with these genocides. . . .
